

TITLE: SISIFO CONFUSO. TRABAJOS Y DIAS DE FRANCISCO LEIRO, 62'

DIRECTOR: Aser Álvarez González

WRITER: Aser Álvarez González

PRODUCER: Arraianos Multimedia

OVERVIEW: This documentary film about the work and the days of Francisco Leiro is not meant to be a biography or an exhaustive presentation of the work, but simply to show the current physical and mental conditions behind his creative process. It is the first time that a film crew has entered his workshops in Cambados, Madrid and New York, following the creative process over the last three years.

DIRECTOR: ASER ÁLVAREZ GONZÁLEZ (Ourense, SPAIN, 06/20/1976) Degree in Politics and Journalism, Masters and Specialist in Audiovisual communication, directs the Carlos Velo International Film Festival. He has worked in newspapers, radio and television, is a partner of Arraianos Produccións and author of books, guides and multimedia works. The documentary 100% CEF is his debut feature, which won the Mestre Mateo Award for Best Documentary, the Special Prize at the Bucharest Film Festival and other awards, circulating around festivals in Europe and America. Sísifo Confuso - Work and days of Francisco Leiro, is his latest work.

SPAIN, 2016